The second signature authorises the insurer to obtain information regarding your work related injury from any doctor treating you. Important: If you do not sign both the declaration and the consent authority, you may be preventing or delaying acceptance of your claim. Make sure both your signatures are countersigned by a witness. Worker's declaration I solemnly and sincerely declare that each and every answer above and the particulars contained herein or annexed hereto relating to myself and the occurrence are true both in substance and in fact to the best of my knowledge and belief. I take notice that, under the provisions of section 59(2) of the Workers' Compensation and Injury Management Act 1981, I am required to notify my employer in writing within 7 days if I commence work with another employer after making a claim, or while receiving weekly payments of workers' compensation. Dated this day of: Signature of worker Signature of witness Consent authority (to be signed at the option of the worker) I authorise any doctor who treats me (whether named in this certificate or not) to discuss my medical condition, in relation to my claim for workers' compensation and return to work options, with my employer and with their insurer. Dated this day of: Signature of worker Signature of witness The insurance company often needs to speak to other parties to assess your workers' compensation claim. By signing this consent authority you authorise the insurer to obtain and release relevant information regarding your work related injury. Important: Not signing the consent authority may delay acceptance of your claim. Make sure that your signature is countersigned by a witness. Consent authority – to be signed at the option of the worker I consent to my employer's insurer and its appointed service providers collecting personal information, inclusive of sensitive information such as medical information about me and using it for the purpose of assessing and managing my workers' compensation claim, including determining liability and whether my claim is true. This consent extends to my employer's insurer disclosing my personal information, inclusive of sensitive information, to other insurers, medical practitioners, rehabilitation providers, investigators, legal practitioners and other experts or consultants for the purpose of assessing and managing my claim. My personal information, inclusive of sensitive information, may also be disclosed as required or permitted by law. I also consent to my employer's insurer disclosing my personal details to WorkCover WA which is authorised to use this information to fulfil its functions and obligations under the Workers' Compensation and Injury Management Act 1981. I have read all the information on this form regarding the consent authority and I consent to the insurer dealing with my personal information in the manner described.
